DEDI

Dorothy E. Hofmann

We, the class of 1955, proudly and sincerely dedicate our classbook to Miss Dorothy E. Hofmann, who we feel is most deserving. Miss Hofmann has devoted her life to teaching. Her sincerity and courage have truly been admired by the many students who have been guided by her in the classroom or in club activities. Miss Hofmann will always be loved and remembered by the class of 1955.

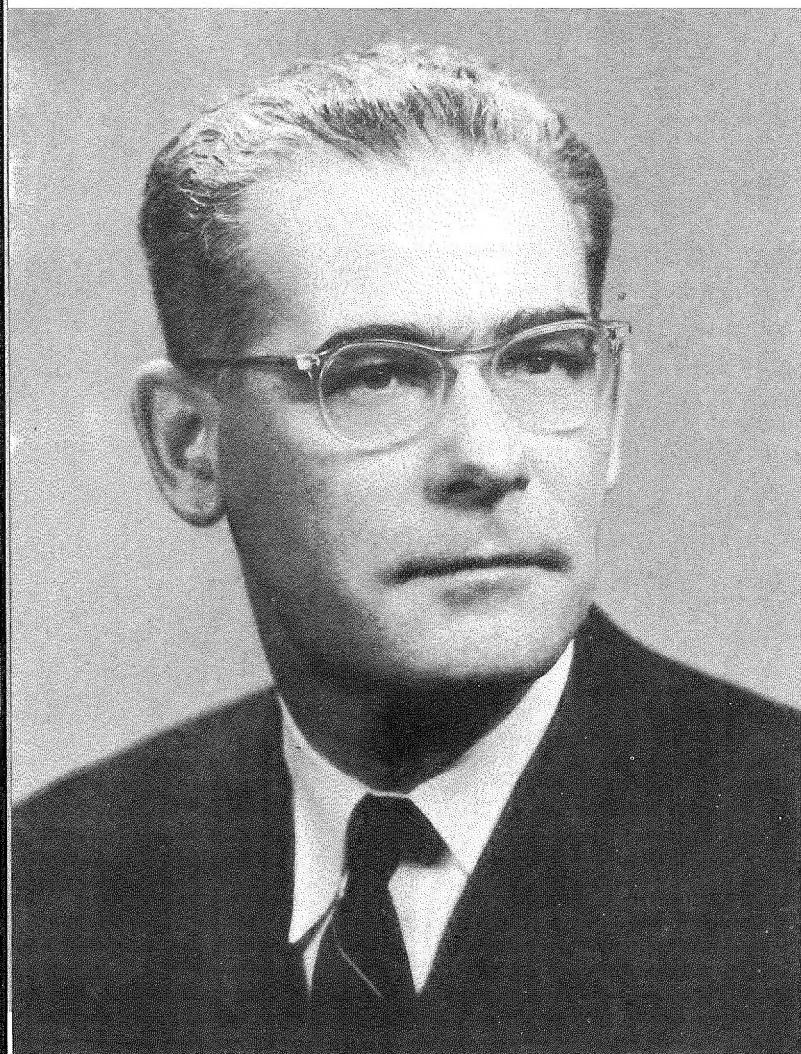

CATION

Edward Korisky

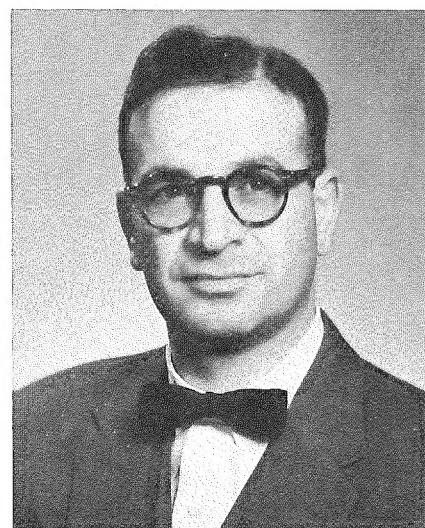

Edward Korisky, whose quick wit and unique manner of teaching, along with his interest and understanding of young people, make him a man who is loved and respected by the members of this class. Through his coaching of Bulkeley teams, he has shown his willingness to work unceasingly and unselfishly for the student body, outside the classroom as well as in.

LUCILLE THERIAULT

In Memoriam

From this, the class of nineteen fifty-five,
There comes a tribute for two classmates dear
That always shall remain a precious part
Of all our thoughts, our prayers, our memories.
For these two lovely girls, whose friendly smiles
And pleasant words cast forth a myriad
Of golden sunbeams upon all the lives
About them, gladly served their church, their homes,
Their school with absolute devotedness.
They both possessed most understanding hearts,
Enthusiasm for all their daily tasks,
And thoughtfulness for those whose lives they touched.
And thus we always shall possess for them
Esteem and love transcended only by
The pure, eternal devotion of our Lord.

Stretching the Cables

Although the 1954-1955 Bulldogs fell short of many pre-season predictions and their State Championships dream of destiny, Babe's boys nevertheless provided their peers with many an action packed Saturday afternoon besides presenting their alma mater with a 5-2-1 winning season.

The return of eleven lettermen, (linemen: Caffegan, G. Carbone, Cables, Bordonaro, Beebe, and Guglielmo; Backs: Vartenigian, Kokinis, Vendetti, Cristalli and R. Carbone) plus a line average of 195 lbs, helped nourish the belief that Bulkeley would be a definite contender for the State's top spot.

A vast underdog, Norwich Free Academy damped the Allenmen's debut by holding them to a scoreless tie at Municipal Stadium on October 2. The lack lustre contest featured frequent fumbles and many frustrating aerial attempts.

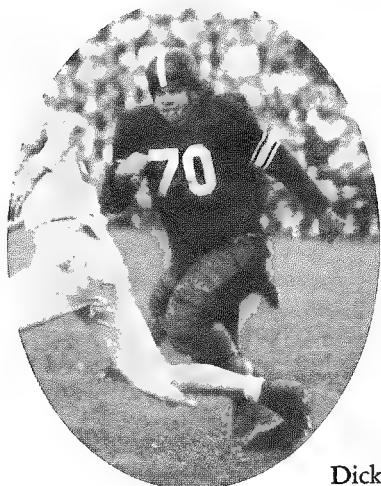

October 9th saw the Maroon men jump into an early season lead in the newly established Capital District Conference by virtue of a 19-13 victory over the Hornets of East Hartford. Hitting paydirt for the Southenders were Koke and Vartenigian while Nick Carbone added the extra point rushing. Nevertheless, it was Bulkeley's Joe Cristalli and swivel hipped Hornet Stu Parker who brought the Muni Stadium occupants to their feet with flashy runs of 81 and 69 yards respectively.

The hex that has hung over the southend for the past four years prevailed once again as Bulkeley, a two touch-down favorite, dropped a 7 to 6 decision to the Owl men of HPHS. Two 15 yard penalties and a fumble set up BHS' lone touchdown early in the second half and fleet footed Harvey Dorman raced eight yards for the Maroon score. Statistically, it was the Bulldogs' game. They racked up 11 first downs to 5 for Hartford and outrushed the victors 136 yards to 56 but the Allenmen failed to cash in on many a golden opportunity. While threatening for another score, Pete Kokinis reinjured his ankle and had to be helped off the gridiron. Bulkeley never threatened again while HPHS' minute red head, Tommy Claffey filled the Saturday Hero's role.

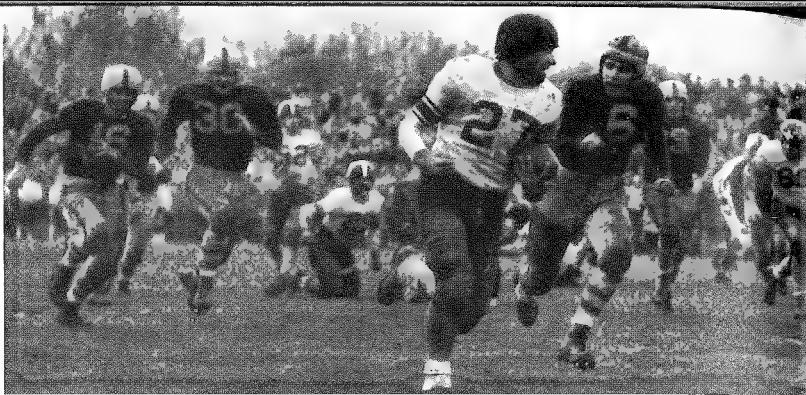

On Saturday, October 23 at Muni Stadium, George Vartenigian carved out a fairy tale victory for the Southend history books. Trailing 12 to 0 with four minutes remaining, Bulkeley brought the ball to the New London six by three quarterback sneaks and the aid of a penalty. Cristalli scored on an end run and Vartenigian annexed the extra point. The stage was then set for George's history making run. With seven seconds remaining, Vartenigian grabbed the Whaler's punt on his right and started his whirlwind trek to glory. Although the clock ran out while George was wending his way to paydirt, he continued tight rope racing up the sidelines to sure victory. Guy Carbone and Ed Caffegan aided the cause by throwing two key blocks. Joe Testa crashed through for the extra point winding up a 14-12 win for BHS.

A scrappy Bulldog eleven battled its way bravely during wind and rain only to be outlasted 13 to 6 by Wilbur Cross' powerful combine at New Haven on October 30. Bulkeley, once again, failed to cash in on the "breaks" and went scoreless in the first half. George Vartenigian accounted for the Maroon's six points while Vendetti's place kick fell short.

Inspired by Chopper Korisky's halftime oration, Bulkeley's "Sleeping Giants" smashed Weaver's all winning record. Flashing pre season promise for the first time, the weighty Bulldogs finally jelled and walloped the Weaver Beavers 20-12. The loss was the third straight for Weaver at the hands of Bulkeley. Two years ago, the Maroons upset another undefeated Northend eleven without even scoring a first down.

Penalties erased two successive touchdowns before Cables scored legally on a smart pass from Vartenigian. George added the extra point. The Greens tallied and the halftime score stood 7-6. From there on, thanks to Mr. Korisky and "Little Kim" (the baby of the year), the Bulldogs blossomed into the "Giant Killers" they had been predicted to be. Weaver's ground game which netted 37 yards, showed a net loss of 24 yards in the second half. Big Ed Caffegan personally headed the unstoppable surge of the Maroon forwards. All told, Eddy crashed through the Beaver's line ten times to nail Quarterback Borden for big losses.

The Coleman brothers contributed both touchdowns for the Greenshirts lost cause. The alert Allenmen capitalized on a fumble recovery and a blocked kick, both by Dick Beebe to score the last two markers. The hustling Vartenigian who sparked the offensive all afternoon scored on the recovered fumble while Kokinis tallied after Beebe blocked the Beaver fourth down punt. Oddly enough, the Beavers won it statistically completing 5 of 14 passes for 119 yards to BHS' 2 of 11 for 39 yards. Weaver piled up 9 first downs to 5 for the Bulldogs but the 110 yards gained rushing by the Maroons tells the story.

A spirited West Hartford Warrior crew played on an equal footing with the Bulldogs for three quarters before bowing 21-7 at Sterling Field on November 13. Again, it was George Vartenigian who insured victory with another of his electrifying runs—81 yards for this tally besides adding the extra point. Bulkeley's first score was the result of constant banging by Kokinis, Vendetti, and Cristalli which finally brought the pigskin down to eight where Vartenigian whipped a chest high floating pass to Joe Meucci in the end zone for a touchdown. Late in the fourth period, Cristalli took a pitchout for the final tally and "Koke" crashed off tackle for the extra point.

As is becoming a habit with New Britain, they got the bird again on Thanksgiving day from the Bulkeley combine. The 20 to 13 victory clinched a second place for the Maroons in the CDC race.

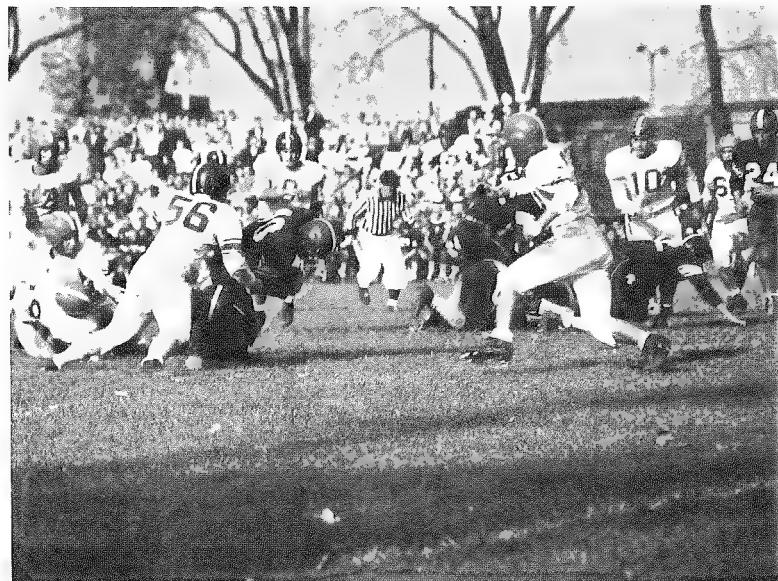

The Bulldogs' first score came on a pass from Vartenigian to Kokinis and George added the extra point. The second six points was a repeat performance from George and Pete, while Vartenigian scored the third tally on his own running ability. Bulkeley's defense was a big factor in the holiday win as they thwarted drive after drive by the Golden Warriors within their own 10 yard line.

As a result of the New Britain duel, George Vartenigian and Pete Kokinis jointly received the "Babe Allen" trophy. Dick Beebe copped this recognition as a sophomore and Koke was awarded the same honor in his Junior year.

While the Bulldogs didn't measure up to their headlines, nevertheless they captured many local honors and dominated the Hartford Courant's All District Squad. No less than five of Mr. Allen's athletes copped top spots on the All Star Defensive and Offensive selections. Ed Caffegan and George Vartenigian were two way winners while Guy Carbone made the grade offensively and Pete Kokinis and Dick Beebe spearheaded the defensive picks.

Ed Caffegan gained more glory for the Bulldogs when he was also named to the All State Squad.

CROSS

COUNTRY

Carella moving up

The fleet footed Flashmen of '55, Cross Country style, failed to score a single victory in eight outings but nevertheless, the squad's spirit and determination merits recognition.

Although the BHS Harriers dropped a 22-33 decision to the West Hartford Warriors, Ronnie Marshall, a Maroon junior, not only copped first place but also broke Hall High's course record by 12 seconds. His time was 11 minutes and 50 seconds.

East Hartford also spelled defeat for the Atlin Athletes on October 5 at Goodwin Park as did Windham on October 8. In the latter contest, Marshall placed second, Captain John Carella, fifth, Rickie Bailey, ninth, Al Marotta, tenth and Pete De Resta eleventh.

In the Greater Hartford High School meet at Keney Park, Bulkeley landed on the bottom of the list but Ron Marshall managed to come through eighth for the Maroons.

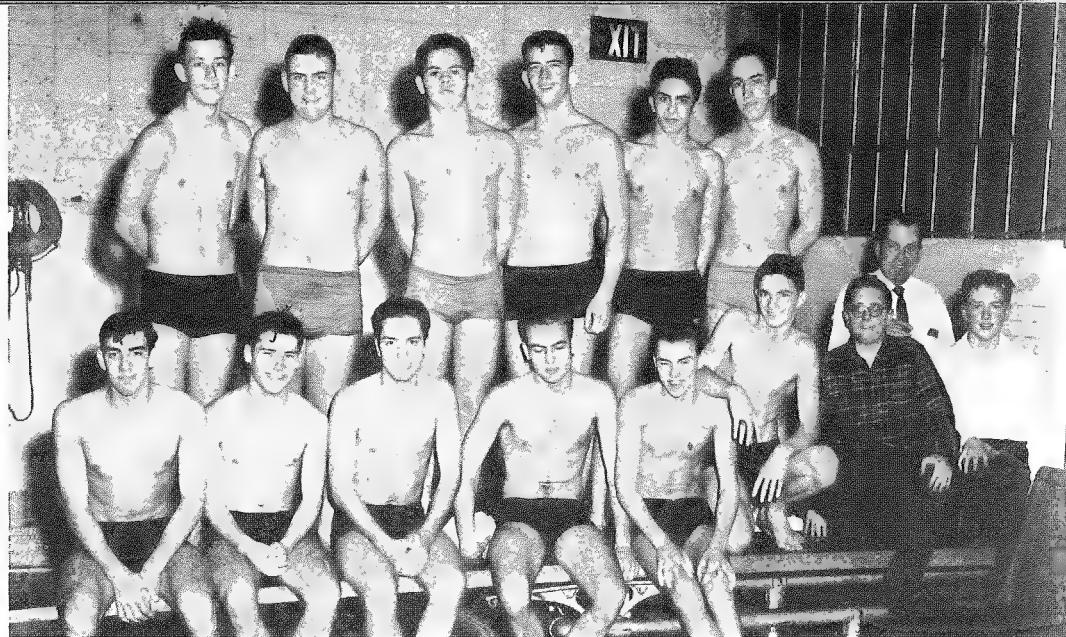

The Bulkeley squad also participated in the Sectional Meet at Storrs and the State Meet in Middletown, Conn.

Earning well deserved letters for their valiant efforts throughout the season, were John Carella, Ron Marshall, Al Marotta and Dick Bailey.

SWIMMING

The Maroon Mermen annexed their most successful aqua campaign thus far under the able guidance of "Flash" Atlin.

Although the record indicates a larger number of losses than victories, one must not fail to consider that every Bulkeley swimming squad is operating without a swimming pool of its own—a definite handicap for any team.

But Flash's Frogs kicked up their heels at this fact and splashed their way to three deserving victories.

The "Fishmen of '55" featured three returning lettermen, Captain Vin Lauria, Jerry Farrell, and Bob Viets. Rounding out the squad are Paul Cianci, Ronnie Marshall, Jim Clapis, Rickey Taylor, Allen Morell, Frank Morlino, Bob Adams, Steve Dempsey, and Frank Tedeschi.

Windham dunked the BHS Tankmen but by a mere five points as Rickey Taylor raced from last place to the lead to win the relay for the Bullfrogs. Vin Lauria and Jerry Farrell placed first and last respectively in the backstroke while Allen Morell captured a second in the diving event.

Flash's favorites came sailing through to submerge Bristol High. The 150 yd. relay was copped by the Lauria, Cianci, Taylor combination. Bob Viets grabbed second place in the 200 yd. free style, while Rick Taylor paralleled Viets in the 40 yd. free style. Morell and Clapis took first and second place diving honors. Paul Cianci notched another first in the breast stroke and Capt. Vin Lauria matched his team mate with a number one spot in the backstroke.

While bowing to Sacred Heart of Waterbury, the Bullfrogs saved face by winning the relay in which Adams, Morlino, Marshall and Taylor participated. Viets copped two second places and Clapis gained a second spot also with his diving performance.

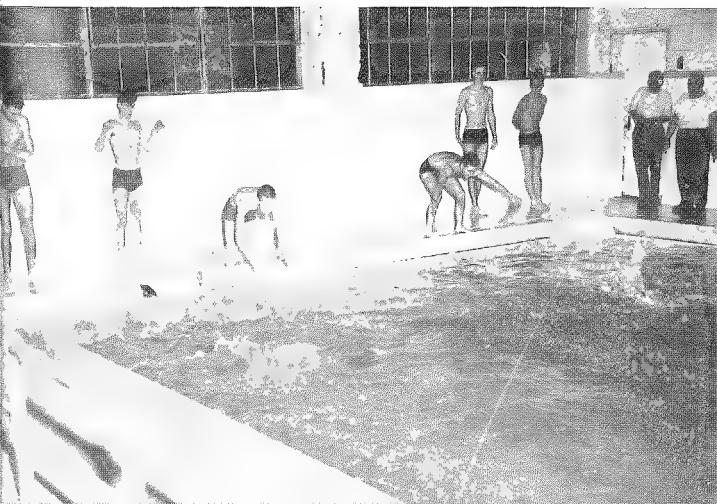

Hartford High humbled the BHS Mermen, but once again Morlino, Dempsey, Marshall and Adams salvaged the relay while Lauria racked up another first in the backstroke.

Paul Cianci copped the only two first place positions in the Manchester and Crosby encounters.

The Bulkeley Ducks defeated Middletown as Cianci and Farrell placed first in their events and Lauria, Viets, Taylor and Clapis landed second berths.

Portland was added to the Bullfrog's conquest list as Bulkeley made a clean sweep of five place slots. The 200 yd. freestyle was won by Bob Viets and the 40 yd. freestyle saw Taylor in first place. Morell and Clapis wrapped up the diving honors while Lauria came through with another first in the backstroke. The BHS combination of Dempsey, Adams, Morlino, and Marshall hauled in the relay win.

Bulkeley Wins,

By BAARON PITTINGER

Bulkeley High's basketball team, safely past a torrid duel with Milford in the playdown round at the New Haven Arena last night, took dead aim on a berth in the semi-final round of the state Class A basketball tournament today, and there is every indication that the Bulldogs can make it.

Bulkeley did an excellent job

SEVEN OF THE BERTHS in the quarterfinal round have been decided. Stratford, also impressive, moved ahead along with Bulkeley last night as it ran roughshod over an inept Hamden quintet, 72-38.

If Cross wins tonight's game, 13 points, the quarterfinal pairings will have Hillhouse vs. Meriden and Bulkeley vs. Cross in the upper bracket, and Hartford vs. Ludlow and Stratford vs. Crosby in the lower.

Should Bristol win tonight, it will be Hillhouse-Meriden vs. Bulkeley-Cross in one bracket and Hartford-Ludlow vs. Stratford in the other.

After four fruitless and bitter years of riding the highways to New Haven's "Ring of Fear," Mr. Bazzano's boys, "The Wizard Five of '55" finally found that "intangible thing that makes a good team great" and came up with several fabulous performances that not only blasted the notorious arena jinx clear out of Connecticut (in search of another team to haunt) but won the hearts of every Connecticut court fan.

But as every story has a beginning, our "Fairy-tale-five" began their long list of conquests way back in December when the "baby" Bulldogs in the opening tilt of their brand new career battled East Hartford.

Sportswriters didn't need any introduction to the Maroon Men as the familiar faces of lettermen, Billy Schmidt, Jimmy Canivan (Co-Captains) and Joe Reilly dominated the scene. Appearing for the first time in varsity dress were the now full grown former "bull puppies" from the jayvee squad, Johnny Precourt, and E. Tommy Czarnota who were destined to round out the Bulkeley quintet plus reserves, Ed Zajac, Ray Bawer and Johnny Collins.

BULKELEY 64 — EHHS 46

The Hornet's sting was completely harmless as the bigger Bulldogs overpowered their Eastside foes 64 to 46, serving early notice that Lou Bazzano's second BHS squad was well on its way to writing many more winning headlines. Powered by the Mutt and Jeff combo of big Billy Schmidt and little Joe Reilly, Bulkeley rolled away in the second half to rip EHHS and grab an early lead in the CDC race. Coach Lou Bazzano's club threw up 55 shots and connected on no less than 26 for an almost 50 per cent.

BULKELEY 44 — HALL 36

Temporarily off balance, the Maroon Men were extended by the West Hartford Warriors until Jimmy Canivan's late hoop moved Bulkeley up a step on the ladder of success via a hard earned 44-36 victory. The Southend aggregation hit a 33% for the evening as the Hall High "tent" held "Bevo" Schmidt to 13 points.

BULKELEY 57 — NEW BRITAIN 44

Bulkeley annexed their third victory of the season by virtue of a 57-44 win over the Golden Warriors of New Britain. Steady Ed Zajac matched Schmidt's rebound efforts (who was "held" to 16 points).

BULKELEY 39 — NORWICH 36

BULKELEY 57 — NEW LONDON 35

Following a holiday lay off period, the rampaging Maroons came bounding back to submerge their seashore opponents, Norwich (the previously regarded Number One Upstate quintet) and New London (39-36 and 57 to 35 respectively). For more than three periods the Norwich Wildcats matched the Bulldogs basket for basket but the Bazzano-men pulled it out in the fourth as Tiger Tom Czarnota came into his own pulling down valuable rebounds and dumping in "clutch hoops."

Paced by high scorers, Canivan and Schmidt, the Bulldogs drowned the New London Whalers in points as visitors completed 40 per cent of their shots. Czarnota's hot hoops in the first period and Chafin's spark in the stretch drive helped Bulkeley ward off the Whaler's full court press.

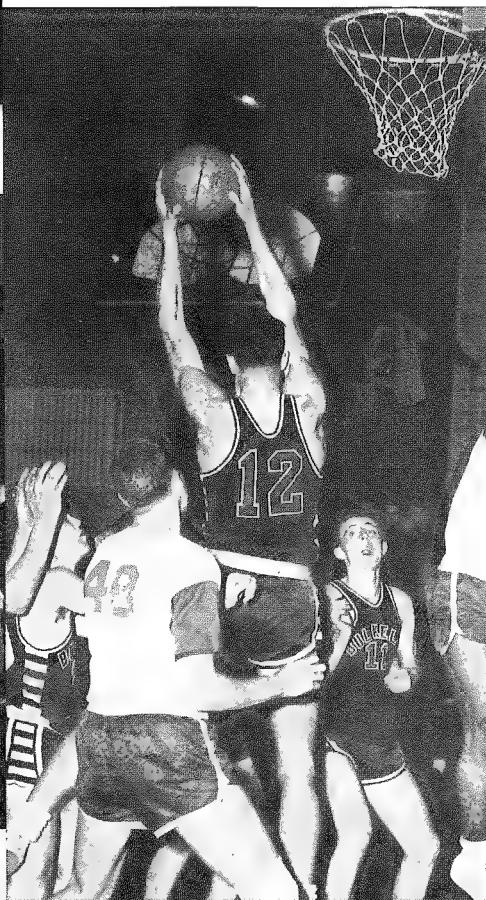

BULKELEY 67 — MERIDEN 41

Bulkeley ran to its sixth straight victory outracing Meriden 67-41. Because of excessive fouls, the Bazzano Bench-men, Ed Zajac, Saul Chafin and Johnny Collins came through for their team mates. It was Joe Reilly quarter backing the Maroon sizzling attack and teaming up with Schmidt for some spectacular passing plays that netted much court-age.

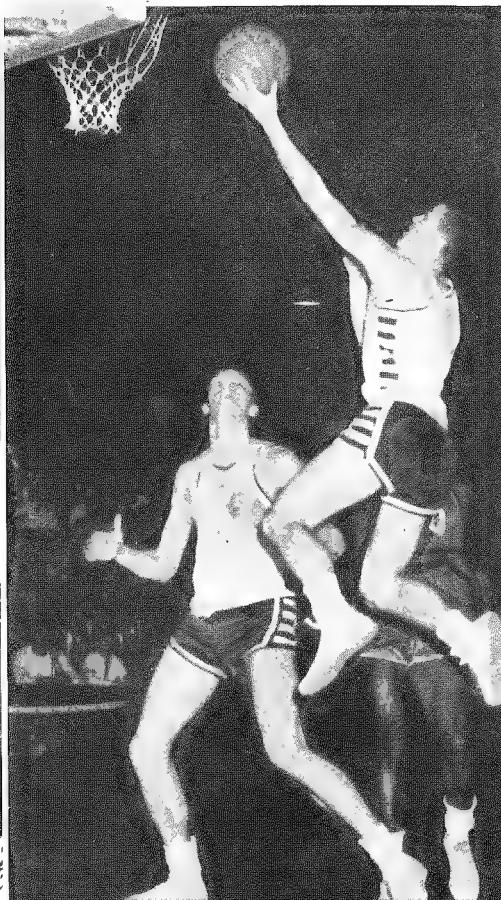

BULKELEY 64 — WEAVER 57

The Northend Yankees succumbed to the superior shooting Southend Rebels as Billy Schmidt, immense under both boards, sent 32 points, sailing home which stood up under the Beaver's rally in the fourth quarter. Despite the nagging Weaver press, Bulkeley's red hot attack never lagged as raring-to-go Reilly broke up many of the Green's plays and the entire Maroon squad came soaring through under pressure play to wrap up another win.

BULKELEY 53 — MERIDEN 43

The unbeaten Bulldogs had to rely on a 16 point halftime bulge to pull out a 53-43 victory over Meriden and once again Bill Schmidt stood high man with 23 points. The win won Bulkeley a spot in the CIAC tournament, the first upstate squad to qualify.

HARTFORD 57 — BULKELEY 43

All good things come to an end and so did the Maroon victory streak as the Hartford High hex ruled again as the Bulldogs bowed 57 to 43 for the first time in the 54-55 season. The Owl, a sluggish squad all season, suddenly caught fire in Trinity's Field House and came roaring through with a 50 per cent shooting performance that left the off form Maroons in the dust.

HALL 61 — BULKELEY 45

The mid-year miseries hit Bulkeley in full force as the West Hartford Warriors beat the Southenders 61-45 for the first time in three years. While the loss hurt the Maroon record, no one regarded the contest seriously as Billy Schmidt was not even in uniform. The ragged game wasn't much to watch—55 fouls were charged in all and 90 free throws attempted.

BULKELEY 64 — WEAVER 49

But a good team can't be held down forever and the Bulkeley five came blasting back to win the City Civil War with Weaver 64-49 as the torrid Maroons meshed 44 per cent of their shots. Schmidt dumped in 17 points and turned in a superb defensive rebounding performance. The Green hounded the Bazzano crew with a full court press but the more alert Bulkeley quintet were in no mood to add to the loss column and capitalized on every Maroon miscue.

BULKELEY 58 — EAST HARTFORD 43

Bulkeley rolled into first place in the Capital District Conference race by virtue of a 58-43 win over the Eastside Hornets. The little but game "Blues" were no match for the tourney bound Bulkeley club as BHS racked up 40 per cent in the shooting department as Wild Willie Schmidt tossed up 30 points and pulled down 28 rebounds as Canivan added 15 points.

BULKELEY 71 — NEW LONDON 58

The Bulldogs and Whalers treated spectators to a spectacular shooting exhibition as BHS finally triumphed 71-58 in a late flurry. The Maroon's unbelievable eye filling shots even left Coach Bazzano amazed as his squad wound up with a 44 per cent shooting average and New London almost equaled it with a neat 42.

NORWICH 73 — BULKELEY 62

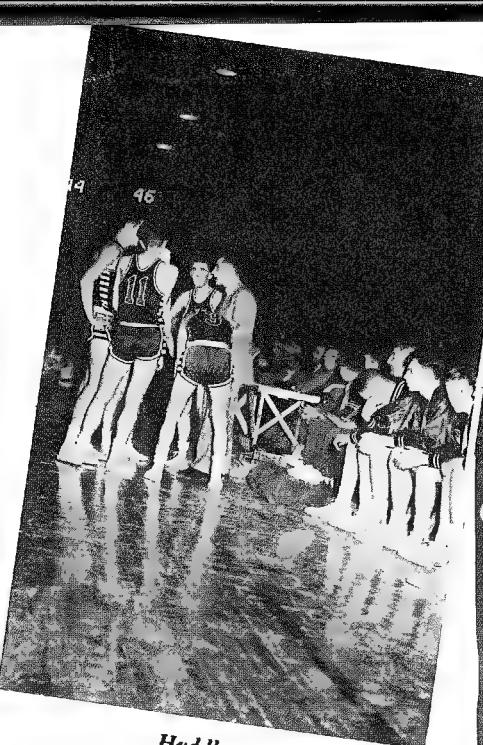

The Wildcats of Norwich gained sweet revenge as they spanked Bulkeley's squad 73 to 62 and hit on 50 per cent of their shots as well as 75 per cent at the foul line. NFA's Ralph Dobiejko won the battle of the Big Boys outscoring Schmidt 24-20.

HARTFORD 49 — BULKELEY 44

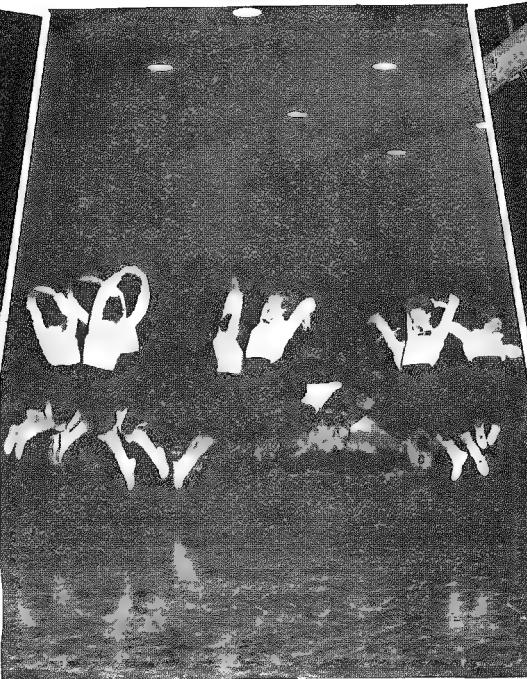

History repeated itself as Bulkeley was denied a win against Hartford High once again to qualify for the State Tourney, in much the same manner as the Owls won another overtime struggle last year. The Maroons never trailed in this contest until the last second as they stood 12-5 at the quarter, 23-17 at the half, 33-29 after three periods and had a 39-37 lead with 1:35 left to play. The Owls soon broke up the Bulkeley stall and Zalucki and Thomas accounted for the deciding points that left the Bulkeley team and fans dazed and still without a win over their biggest rivals.

BULKELEY 24 — NEW BRITAIN 17

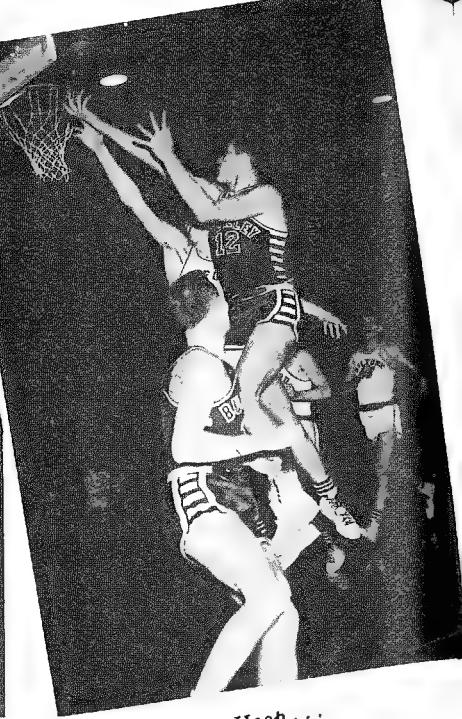

Bulkeley closed its regular season with a "record breaking" 24-17 victory over New Britain High that had half of Hartford screaming indignantly because the Golden Warriors employed an extended and exaggerated "freeze" for the second time that week. NBHS' slow down tactics blew up in their faces as the Maroon squad refused to be pulled out of their zone and outlasted the Warriors for win No. 12.

Huddle . . .

Hoop . . .

Tournament

And there we were heading down the New Haven Highway as the No. 6 team in the state to meet 11th ranked Milford and hoping that this was the year. Much to the surprise of Southend spectators, Lady Luck, after five long years, changed her colors and was attired in Maroon as she hovered over the Bulkeley hoop. Billy Schmidt recognized her immediately as he tossed up 20 points and hauled in 29 rebounds but it was the "Backboard Jungle King," Tiger Tom Czarnota who won laurels for his aggressiveness. It was a tense duel right down to the wire with neither team giving ground as the halftime score read 31 all. But the Maroons responded to pressure play like a whale to water and matched the Indians and their chief, Walt Pilkowicz basket for basket and finally outlasted the Milford quintet 58 to 56 as the arena jinx slinked silently out the side entrance.

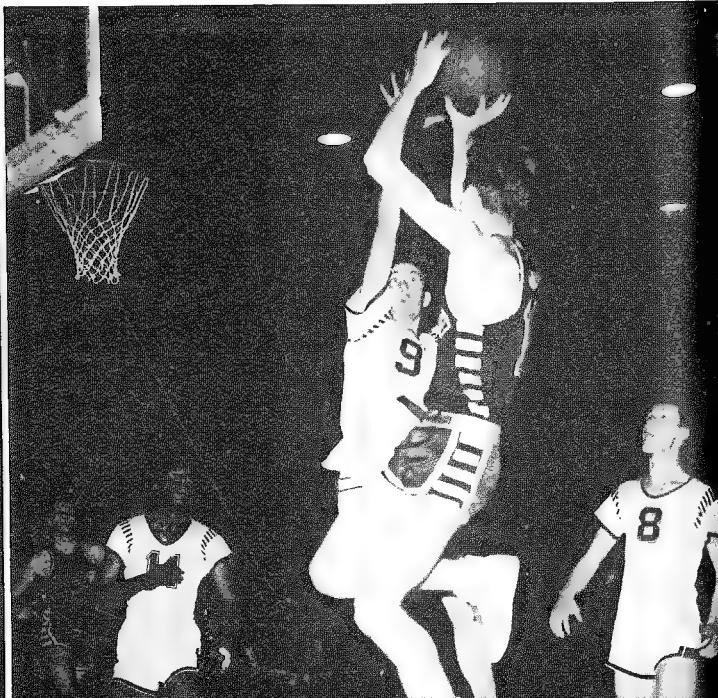

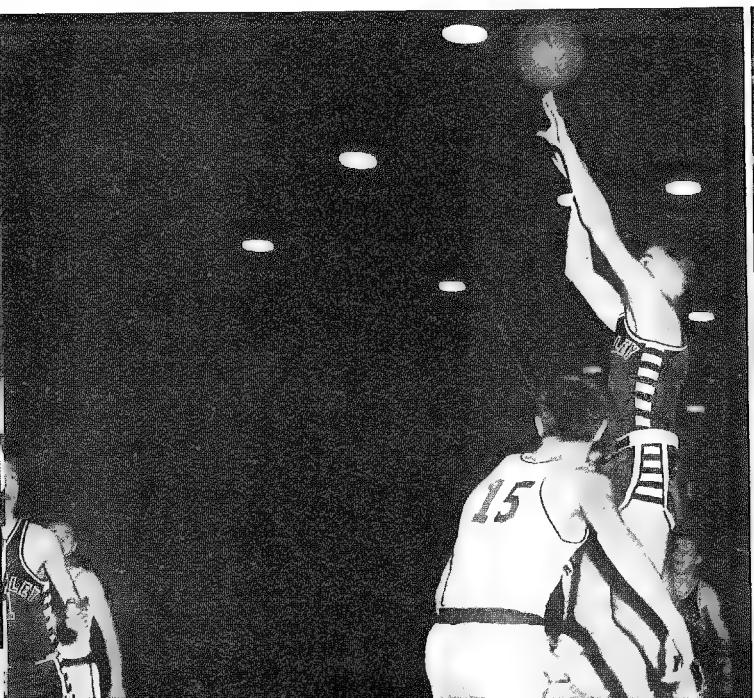

Canivan shoots . . . Good!

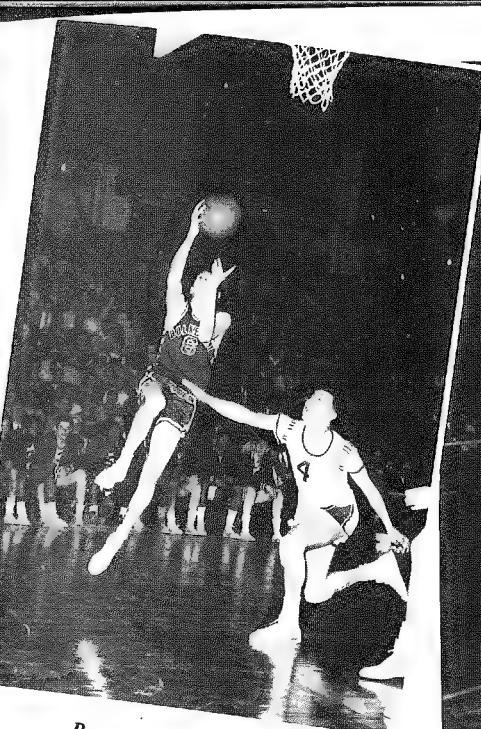

On March 7, a battling Bulkeley five recorded Maroon history as the Southenders checked a last ditch Wilbur Cross drive to beat the Governors 49 to 46 and enter the semi-finals of the Class A tournaments—only the second Maroon quintet ever to advance that distance.

The Bulldogs were forced to go into the ice box as the favored New Haveners rallied but the determined Hartford entry held fast to their lead with a pretty 33 per cent shooting average. Billy Schmidt accounted for 23 more points.

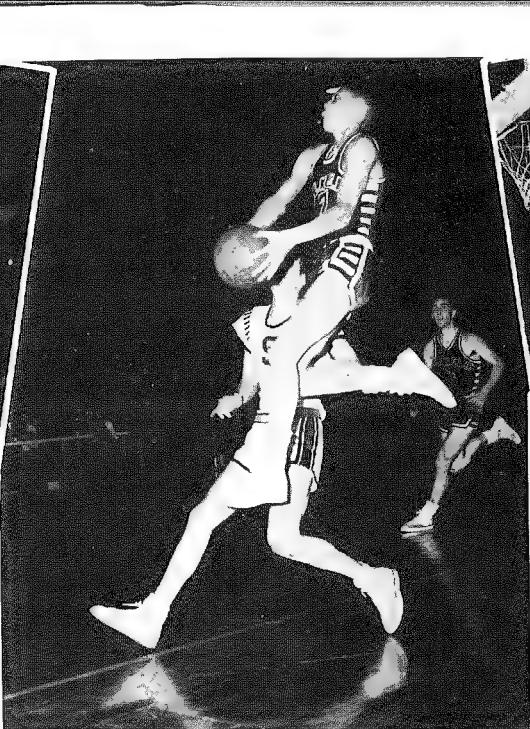

Then the stage was set for the memorable Hillhouse-Bulkeley semi-final battle. Hillhouse was featuring the same quintet that captured the New England Championship last year and hadn't lost a game in 22 outings this year. This Cinderella Squad was rated as the highest flying five ever to be produced by a Connecticut High School. The Bulldogs barged their way into the arena a 20 point underdog and backed out a 5 point loser. Nevertheless, Bulkeley gained a lot more in losing than any other team in many a basketball moon as the sports headliners screamed the feats of the valiant "Wizard Five"—Hillhouse, commonly called the Wonder Five stepped confidently into the arena floor but were badly shaken up as the iron men of Hartford held the lead in the scoring duel clear into the second period.

In the third quarter, Hillhouse rallied and raced to a 40-26 lead as gloom enveloped the Insurance City fans. But the never-say-die fearless Bulkeley five came blasting back as sub Johnny Collins sparked a fiery rally that saw Saul Chafin sink a hoop that brought the score thus far to 60-58 with two minutes to play and BHS still trailing. From there on in, the highly touted Academics stalled and aided their cause by adding imperative fouls thus insuring train reservations for Boston.

And so once again, the Bulkeley squad left New Haven arena but with a great deal more than a loss. No losing squad ever won the respect and hearts of so many fans in so little time and no other BHS combine ever managed to conquer the arena jinx that floated over every southend crew.

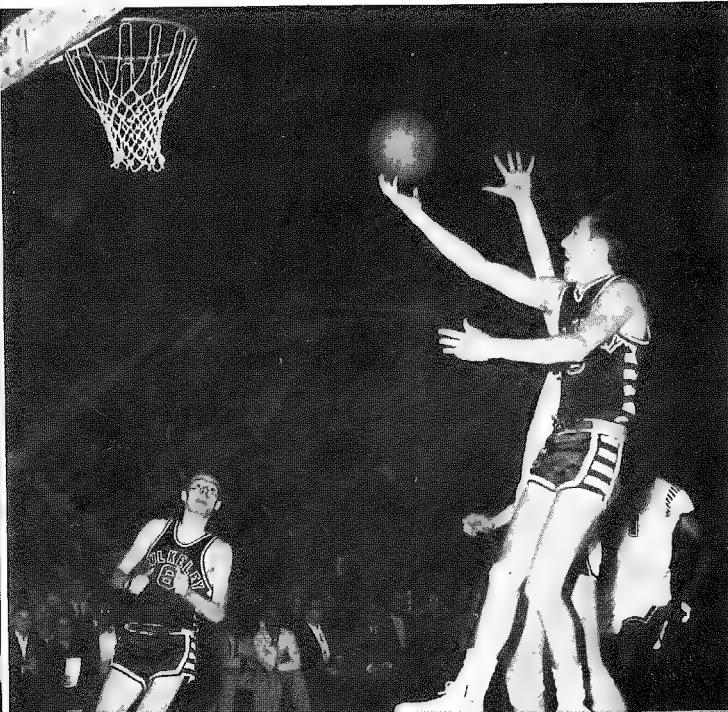

Billy Schmidt received his just due as he was named to the All District, All Turney and All State Select Fives as first string center and the Bulkeley Bulldogs, because of their great sportsmanship, found themselves in Boston anyway—at no personal expense whatsoever.

And so drops the Maroon curtain on the most memorable team of them all—"The Wizards of '55."

GOLF

There was quite a book written the past spring, with a team as its author. Untitled up to now we would like to call it "The Golfing Greats." Yes, the Golfing Bulldogs, with Robert Daly as their coach, wrote some pretty exciting chapters in our novel.

Chapter One saw the Maroons make their debut on the local golf scene a successful one. The fairwaymen trimmed Canton $1\frac{1}{2}$ - $6\frac{1}{2}$. Basketball star Czarnota proved his worth on the golf course shooting a brilliant 79.

Chapter Two was written in the same person with the same team scores. Bulkeley made it two in a row as they beat East Hartford $1\frac{1}{2}$ - $6\frac{1}{2}$. Czarnota once again led the Bulldogs, this time with a sparkling 74.

The scene changed for Chapter Three and it saw the Maroons traveling to New Britain to meet the Hardware City team on the rugged Stanley course. Despite a sharp performance by NBHS's Dick Siderowf (a 76) we were able to defeat New Britain 11-7. Peterson having his best day to date shot a 79 to be low man for the Maroons.

Chapter Four was probably the worst chapter in the golfing novel. The Bulldogs working on an undefeated string of three victories met Wethersfield High and were beaten 12-6. Bill Emmons and Dick Sjorstrom of the winners both had 81.

Beginning Chapter Five the Bulldogs trounced East Hartford for the second time 14-4. Czarnota, Emmons and Peterson all had 80's.

Apparently rolling once again the Bulkeley boys wrote into Chapter Six, the second defeat of New Britain by the score of $1\frac{1}{2}$ - $6\frac{1}{2}$. Emmons was low man in the match with a 74.

This next Chapter might well be called the revenge of the South. On their home course the Bulldogs thoroughly thrashed Wethersfield by the convincing score of 17-1. Czarnota shooting beautiful golf with a 35 on the front nine and 39 on the back was the low man for the match. Emmons and Dick Sjorstrom who tied in the first WHS-BHS match for low with 76's. Promising Herb Frankl shot a solid 81.

Riding in high Bulkeley's next Chapter was another beauty. The pitch and putters shut out Newington High by the sensational score of 18-0. Peterson, Emmons, Czarnota and Frankl all hit under 80—72, 73, 74, 79, respectively.

The Chapter which saw the Bulldogs travel down to Fairfield for the "State" was quite an exciting one, especially for hard working Mr. Emmons. Bill won the individual Championship with a par 37-35-72 score. The teams total of 332 was five strokes behind Wilbur Cross (327) who won the tournament. For Emmons this was quite a victory. Bill has played fine-solid golf all year and really deserved the crown.

Raring to go after his brilliant performance in the tournament Emmons led the Maroons into the eighth Chapter by shooting a sparkling 70 as the Maroons beat Weaver $1\frac{1}{2}$ - $1\frac{1}{2}$.

The noun "victory" closed out the Maroons novel as they won a squeaker from Canton High $9\frac{1}{2}$ - $8\frac{1}{2}$. Czarnota was low man in this final match with a 78.

TENNIS

Collectively, this year's tennis season was an unsuccessful one, the Romano-men ending up with a 4 and 5 record. However, individually the boys did very well. Bob Leonard, a four year veteran and two year man, Tom Ratcliffe, co-captain, spark-plugged the Bulkeley Racquet-squad.

Three Juniors, Mike Cleary, Sal Russo, and Ted Gozdeck will return next year along with freshman Don Campion, who showed some wonderful potential in a well-played season.

This year's squad bowed to the following teams: Weaver 6-0 and 9-0, St. Thomas 9-0 and 8-1, and New Britain 5-4. They won over Wethersfield 7-0, New Britain 6-3, and East Hartford 5-4 and 6-3.

Under the expert guidance of coach Ralph Romano, the team displayed outstanding sportsmanship and an increasing ability at the game with each succeeding match which was remarked about time and again by opposing players, coaches, and fans.

The South End Southpaw

BASEBALL

HPHS 5-BULKELEY 0: As the '55 diamond polishing season set in, the Maroon squad failed to shine as they dropped a 10 inning 5-0 classic to those "little men in the blue suits" from Hartford in the city's opener.

For nine innings, Sala's (HPHS) pitching left him exactly even, 0-0, with Bulkeley's ace Jimmy Canivan. The classy Bulldog lefthander was working on a no hitter for seven and one-third innings and had allowed only two hits at the end of the ninth. But in the tenth, Canivan's strength waned and Hartford broke up the contest.

BULKELEY 5-WEAVER 3: Bulkeley parlayed a fine pitching performance by Canivan with a sloppy defensive performance by Weaver to win its first game of the season 5-3 at Keney Park.

Canivan checked Weaver with five hits and struck out 11 as Bulkeley got seven hits off loser Johnny Egan, Joe Cristalli led the attack with two.

EHHS 7-BULKELEY 4: The Maroons dropped their second contest 7-4 to a talented East Hartford ball club as Babe's boys were once again plagued by their inability to hit. Maroon mound man Johnny Precourt struck out 11 batters but only miscues and passes allowed Bulkeley to score as they left ten men stranded.

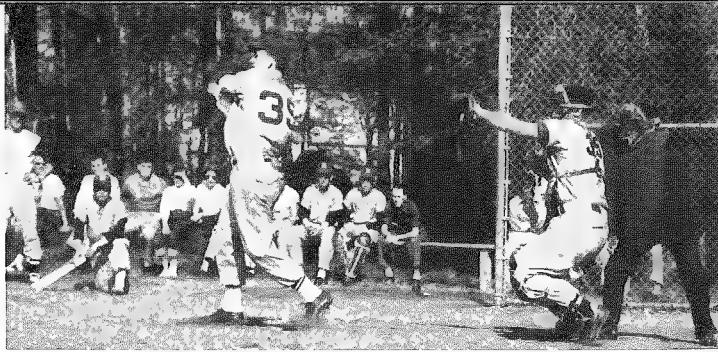

BULKELEY 4-HPHS 1: Canivan and Company evened matters with Pete Sala and Hartford High with a 4-1 victory at Munie Stadium. Canivan won the much awaited duel of southpaw brilliants spinning a fine four hitter as his mates reached Sala for seven safeties. Both clubs left 11 base runners stranded. The victory booted the Maroons to first place in the city race.

Big gun for Bulkeley was veteran centerfielder George Vartenigian who clouted a homer and a single in three trips to the plate. He registered three of the Maroons' runs.

BULKELEY 5-NEW BRITAIN 3: Bulkeley gathered in its third victory as Johnny Precourt pitched his first win downing New Britain 5-3. The Red and Gold led until the last of the ninth as Canivan reached first on an error. Joe Cristalli singled, Don Abbatte doubled and Ed Caffegan followed with another single. These hits coupled with two beautiful squeeze bunts spelled victory for the Maroons.

BULKELEY 7-NORWICH 4: Connecting for a 14 hit attack including a home run by Kenny Vardion and four safeties by reserve catcher Dave Connolly, Bulkeley blasted out a 7-4 victory over the upstate powerhouse Norwich Free Academy. Johnny Precourt, a curve balling righthander accounted for his third win as he allowed 12 hits but helped his own cause by issuing only two walks and striking out four.

BULKELEY 7-EAST HARTFORD 4: After a shaky start, Bulkeley's capable club settled down and belted out a 7-4 victory over East Hartford breaking the Eastsiders five game league streak.

Canivan gave up but six hits—only one after the fifth inning. Bulkeley, in the process of fashioning its fourth straight success pounded out 10 hits while marring Al Phelon, the Hornets' ace hurler, gaudy 5-0 mark.

Smooth senior strongarm centerfielder George Vartenigian powered the Maroon onslaught with an mighty two run homer and two singles. He drove in three runs.

BULKELEY 10-WEAVER 0: Moving at top speed, Bulkeley flattened Weaver 10-0 to give the Southend its first city championship crown outright in five years. Jimmy Canivan hurled the first six innings in air tight fashion. With Bulkeley leading 7-0, Babe Allen moved Jimmy to right field and Precourt assumed mound duty in the seventh and allowed but two hits as did his predecessor. A strong Maroon defense saw the winners play errorlessly in the field. Dave SanGiacomo batted in three runs.

NEW BRITAIN 4-BULKELEY 3: Errors and bases on balls proved the undoing of Johnny Precourt, giving one of his best performances as New Britain made the most of only four hits to topple BHS 4-3 thus giving the Bulldogs a second place in the Capital District Conference race.

Battling Bulkeley pushed over two runs in a last ditch ninth inning rally which died with the bases full as SanGiacomo grounded out. Fireballing Adam Yopp, the Golden Hurricane ace and the best moundsman the Maroons faced all season, scattered eight hits and received flawless support.

WILBUR CROSS 5-BULKELEY 1: As a result of the CIAC mathematical formula, Bulkeley's club received a higher rating than the CDC Champs, East Hartford, and therefore won a bid to the State baseball tournament.

But Bulkeley's chance to participate in the revived tournaments was snuffed out by Wilbur Cross of New Haven as the Governors trimmed the Maroons 5-1 in a playoff game for the fourth and final position in the event.

Taking advantage of control trouble by southpaw Canivan, the New Haveners gained an early lead in the game. Canivan allowed only four hits but gave up five bases on balls, all of the passes coming in the first three innings. He struck out five. Don Abbate drove across Bulkeley's one tally with a fifth inning single through the middle to score Canivan who had reached third via a walk, error and a fielder's choice. Seven steals by Cross hurt.

HALL 6-BULKELEY 3: Bulkeley and Jimmy Canivan still recovering from their tourney loss, dropped a decision finale to Hall High 6-3. The Bulldogs reached Perlman for five hits in the first two innings but didn't get another safety until the ninth.

The loss was Bulkeley's third straight and the Bulldogs finished with a not too impressive mark of six wins and five losses. At that it was the best record compiled by a city team.

Peter Kokinis was finishing a four year varsity baseball career for Bulkeley—the first athlete to earn four letters in one sport in the school's history.

Other seniors playing their finale for Bulkeley were George Vartenigian, Jimmy Canivan, Paul Vinci, Ken Vardion and Ed Caffegan.

Led by Captain Don Cables, the Bulkeley Tracksters gave many a good track squad a struggle.

Don grabbed three first places in the mile and the javelin in dual competition and another first in the 880 while he managed to place fourth in the Greater Hartford Meet and third in the State Indoor mile. On Memorial Day, Cables hurled the javelin 147 feet, his best, to cop a second position.

Bob Carnarca, another senior, hauled in three firsts for the 440, a first in the 100 yard and a total of five second places in the 440 and the 100 throughout the season.

Another departing senior, John Carella racked up three top spots and three second places in the 880 while holding down a second place position against Hartford High in the javelin department.

Neil Coogan, Ted Sudal and Ed Caffegan (waiting for baseball season) combined talents and heaved the shot-put for the Maroon Cindermen. Ed copped a first in the City Indoor meet, a fourth in the Eastern Sectionals at Storrs and a third at the Hartford Invitational Meet while Sudal and Neil placed second and fourth respectively at the indoor event and Coogan gained two firsts against Windham and Hartford with his shot-put performance and three second places in addition.

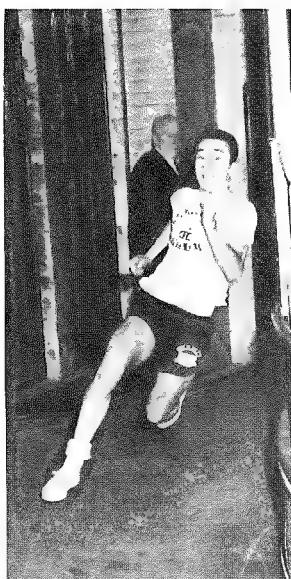

While bowing to HPHS, Steve Dempsey copped the number one spot in the high jump and Ronny Marshall followed suit in the high jump. Dempsey and Marshall also placed first against Windham in their respective events.

Rick McKeon also managed to rack up two "firsts" in the 220 and another first for good measure in the 100 yard.

Contributing to an able cause during the track season were Maroon men, Mele, Ratcliffe, LaBreche, and Snipas.

The Bulkeley relay squad defeated Manchester, East Hartford, and Hall High.

CLASS HISTORY

This is the tale, my peers, of our class of many changes, that went wandering so far as it plundered Bulkeley's sacred citadel. (What did he say? What?)

For this introduction we offer apologies to Homer and his Odyssey but at least it gets us off on the right foot.

At the outset of our freshman year, we were approximately 215 strong—we should say 216 in honor of a most important newcomer—Mr. Alexander Mackimmie—who was appointed principal of Bulkeley that year.

During our first few days here we were forced to take the brunt of many of the antiquated antics of the upper classmen.

Some of us were mislead, such as Rita Yaconiello, who accidentally walked into the boys' locker room.

Accidentally? To this day, I still think that she knew where she was going.

Then after a week or more of groping through the maze of corridors and doorways, we finally learned the difference between our session rooms and Mr. Bashour's corrective exercise classes for those who had been unfairly overworked in their classrooms.

We all thought that royalty had entered upon the scene with Royal Joseph, III's moniker showing upon the room lists. Buddy, however, took all the ribbing good naturedly.

Then came our first big social function of the year . . . the Boys' Club-Girls' League dance. This is more commonly known as the "Long Range Dance Party" with the boys straddling one side of the gym and the girls the other.

That first autumn, Pete Kokinis earned his nickname "Crazylegs;" Peg O'Neill began her four year run on the Honor Roll Hit Parade; and Toni Markette and Gert Manlott began their great crusade of driving all of their teachers crazy.

When Jane Stevenson and Paul Campion walked off with first place honors in the speaking contest, we showed the upperclassmen who was who.

The big "blowout" that year occurred when Mr. D'Amato found his tires flat. In on the deflating process were Julia DeMaio and Shirley McGee.

John Long began his short tenure of office for one year as a Student Council member.

Even making the honor roll doesn't exclude a person from getting lost during a fire drill as Donald Looney soon found out.

It seems as if he never could find his homeroom fire station.

Experiencing growing pains, Frances Reed found it hard to climb aboard those high stools used in Mr. Lund's room. Earlene Samson began her early start in the Girls' Athletic program.

Finally at the end of our freshman year we emerged from lower Slavobia in which we had been tabbed "Schmoos" at every turn.

Our sophomore year total enrollment swelled to 410 because the rest of our South-end classmates from Burr joined us.

Leading the pack while driving his '37 Chrysler, which was high on the scrap iron list, was Arnie, "I grew up on Pop's milk" Bayer. Ray Horan, Joe Rowlins, Sebastian Cianci, and John Presutti were among others who trusted to foot leather rather than Arnie's mechanically unstable heap.

Belting that bop high, wide and handsome with his talented sax was Buz Garrett. Following his jive to the Bulkeley halls were Audrey Perlitz, Gail Chapman, Bev Keduk, and Genevieve Curti.

To Einstein's theory of energy, $E=mc^2$, Bulkeley found its answer in the person of peppy, vivacious Helen Leonard.

Sophie Marino and Joe Adamiak bent to the task of proving themselves outstanding artists, and they really did just what they set out to do. Jack Eller and Dot Palen were the first of our class to break into the Dramatic Club's annual stage production.

In football our squad belted New Britain again and big Dick Beebe, spearheading the attack, hauled down the Babe Allen trophy.

Sheila Coughlin, Ellie Zawacki, and Joanne McCourt could be seen at every Bulkeley game sporting our famous school colors with their catchy combo of white sweaters and maroon slacks.

Victory in spite of handicap symbolized our class especially concerning the cross-country team in our sophomore year. Bob Camarca got off on the wrong foot; in fact, he didn't get off on his feet. He tripped at the start and slid on the cinder track. But that didn't stop him, he got up and drove on to take second place in the junior varsity run.

At the beginning of our Junior Year, the effect of the calibrated brainwashing of our unabashed faculty resulted in our total enrollment falling off to practically 370—a slight decline from our sophomore year.

As the fall sessions started, we found that Bob Bassell had contracted a rare infectious disease "Sleeping sickness." An "odds on choice" to complete his high school career snoring away in classes was fulfilled by Bob to the letter.

Our gridiron titans picked off New Britain again in this year of 1953 and in doing so garnered Babe Allen's 100th football triumph. Pete Kokinis, with his spirited play, received the Babe Allen trophy.

Now, for the first time in 28 years, our basketball squad came under a new coach—Mr. Bazzano. In a more or less mediocre season, Big Bill Schmidt was the bright spot with his record-smashing play. In the season's finale "Ham Hands" Schmidt stomped around to the tune of a 38 point spree to set a new school record.

In another field of endeavor, that nasty word "Geometry" was in vogue and had a good time stifling many of us. With this strain taking a heavy toll on us, Mr. Quinn's third period class came up with a life saver. An underground goodies ring was formed to combat this menace. Loretta Shages, Joe Testa, and Gerry Fitzgibbon were the prime saboteurs.

It was in that year that Marlene McCarthy and Barbara Sziksai, "the gals with the gift of gab," joined the telephone company in order to make use of their loquacious habits.

In the Senior dominated Torch Night, Ginny Montesi was the bright spot of our class.

Another bright spot that year was filled by Val Ogren. In fact, she almost blinded us with her orange and white striped jersey.

The Christmas program that year will certainly stand out in our minds. The success of the program was due in part to Pete Sliva, who created the effective shadow boxes.

Some of us were struggling in les classes de francaises. Everyone was signing up for French lessons with Mademoiselle Elaine Daley and Monsieur Joe Musleh. Roland Riberdy and Bev Damm were among the few, the very few, who were not baffled by the French Hieroglyphics.

That was the year when Joan Hunter's classes were all to her liking. About that time, we were all wishing that we could work in the scheduling room.

As verified by the junior poll, the only competitor that the gossip column ever had was Anne "Hedda Hopper" Hacker.

The prize anecdote of the year came out of Miss McSherry's English class. In reply to a wink from Paul Campion, Miss McSherry quipped, "Young man, you're flirting with death."

The big dance which highlighted our Junior year was our Junior Prom. With the general theme of the dance being a "Garden in the Rain," George Vartenigian and Paula Ledwith reigned as king and queen.

With our Junior year safely tucked away (as far as credits were concerned, anyway) we all felt certain that in our incoming senior year we were really going to shine.

At long last we reached our senior year wherein we took full advantage of the famous and traditionally elaborate picnics put on by the faculty, the cinemascopic movies with stereophonic sound in the scientifically sound proofed room 303, and the H-bomb testings on Yucca flat, formerly the third floor chem. lab. Some of us didn't quite get in on all of these affairs; in fact, none of us got in on any of them. But meanwhile, back at the ranch . . .

Jack Tine had organized his car hop service. It seems as if Jack had two cars—one which his father needed right away and the other which his boss wanted immediately. What did Jack do? Well, he drove one car two blocks; dashed back a block and drove the other car two blocks; then, walked back to the first car and drove that two blocks. I guess this was the end of his short car hop service.

At the Weaver rally, the Pizza "Queen" fill-ins, Paul Vinci, Bob Massa, and Jim Tinnerella, obtained at practically no expense at all by the Athletic Association, put on a fabulous exhibition of how not to be a cheerleader.

Word leaked out that the identity of that big freshman who ploughed into Miss Kienle one day earlier in the year and almost ran her down was in reality a live (and lucky for him) still breathing senior. Johnny Skowronek, your secret will always be our secret.

Yucca Flat buzzed with those chemistry Einsteins Barbara Gernhardt, George Hodges, and Stanley Lesnewsky, who couldn't tell their bunsen burner from their beaker bottles.

A terrible trio in the persons of Judy Morline, Rosemary Martino, and Bill Scollo invaded Drivers Ed. At last look, the hedges in front of Judy's house were recovering nicely from the beating they received at the hands of Judy's expertly (?) guided car.

Our football team picked up where it left off again as far as New Britain was concerned by stomping over them 20-12.

Our band played many a song at those football games where Fred Parsons could always be heard tooting his tuba along with Paul Maffiolini and his classy clarinet.

Joe Sapia received a commendation slip for his patient waiting while the yellow light gave way to its counterpart blue.

Fran Papplardo's excuses for unprepared homework were incredibly always acceptable. Could it be that Fran had her own sealing wax?

Al Marotta cooled his heels this year by running a steady race for our cross-country team.

Bulkeley's DAR award went to a deserving girl named Linda Johnson.

From the beginning of the year, Sandy Martocchio could always be observed pulling the Dagwood Bumstead act of mad dashes for the 2:03 bus.

This year's speaking contest was won by Pete Kelly with his dramatic interpretation of Kipling's "Gunga Din" in cockney dialect.

Bulkeley's answer to George Gobel this year was Pete Smith, who out Gobeled Gobel with "He's a dirty bird."

Through Mr. Doolittle's fifth period Astronomy class, Art Randall, Joe Scalze, and Harvey Dorman learned that the Milky Way doesn't come to us through the combined efforts of America's Candy producers.

Our basketball team stayed on the tournament train for three rides this time with its spirited play and made the semi-finals for the second time in Bulkeley basketball annals. By its strong and determined showing, the team won respect and praise from all corners of the state.

At the annual spring Honor Society Induction, the officers, Paul Paslaski, Joe Pagan, Marion Fischer, and Nancy Burgen cited the essential qualities needed to perpetuate the growth of both high scholastic attainment and strong character building in future Bulkeley classes.

Vic DeMichele's vision of someday being able to reach the doorknob on his sister's dollhouse was finally realized when he was billed as the "tall man" in the circus sideshow at Senior Night.

On the spring sports scene our baseball team won for Bulkeley its first outright city title in five years. The golf team also came up with another sparkling season highlighted by Bill Emmons' winning performance in the CIAC sponsored state tournament.

This season's track team cry was "Hey! That looks like John Carella, doughnut?"

Among the unforgettables were Dot Pikula's earning an A from Mr. D'Amato, who has given out A's to only four others;

Bob Deming's versatility in regard to the Corridor Quickies of the Torch;

The 3 Fs—Jerry Farrell, Bob Frazier, and the Ford;

Larry Smith's tussle with Mr. Noah Webster's handbook at Senior Night;

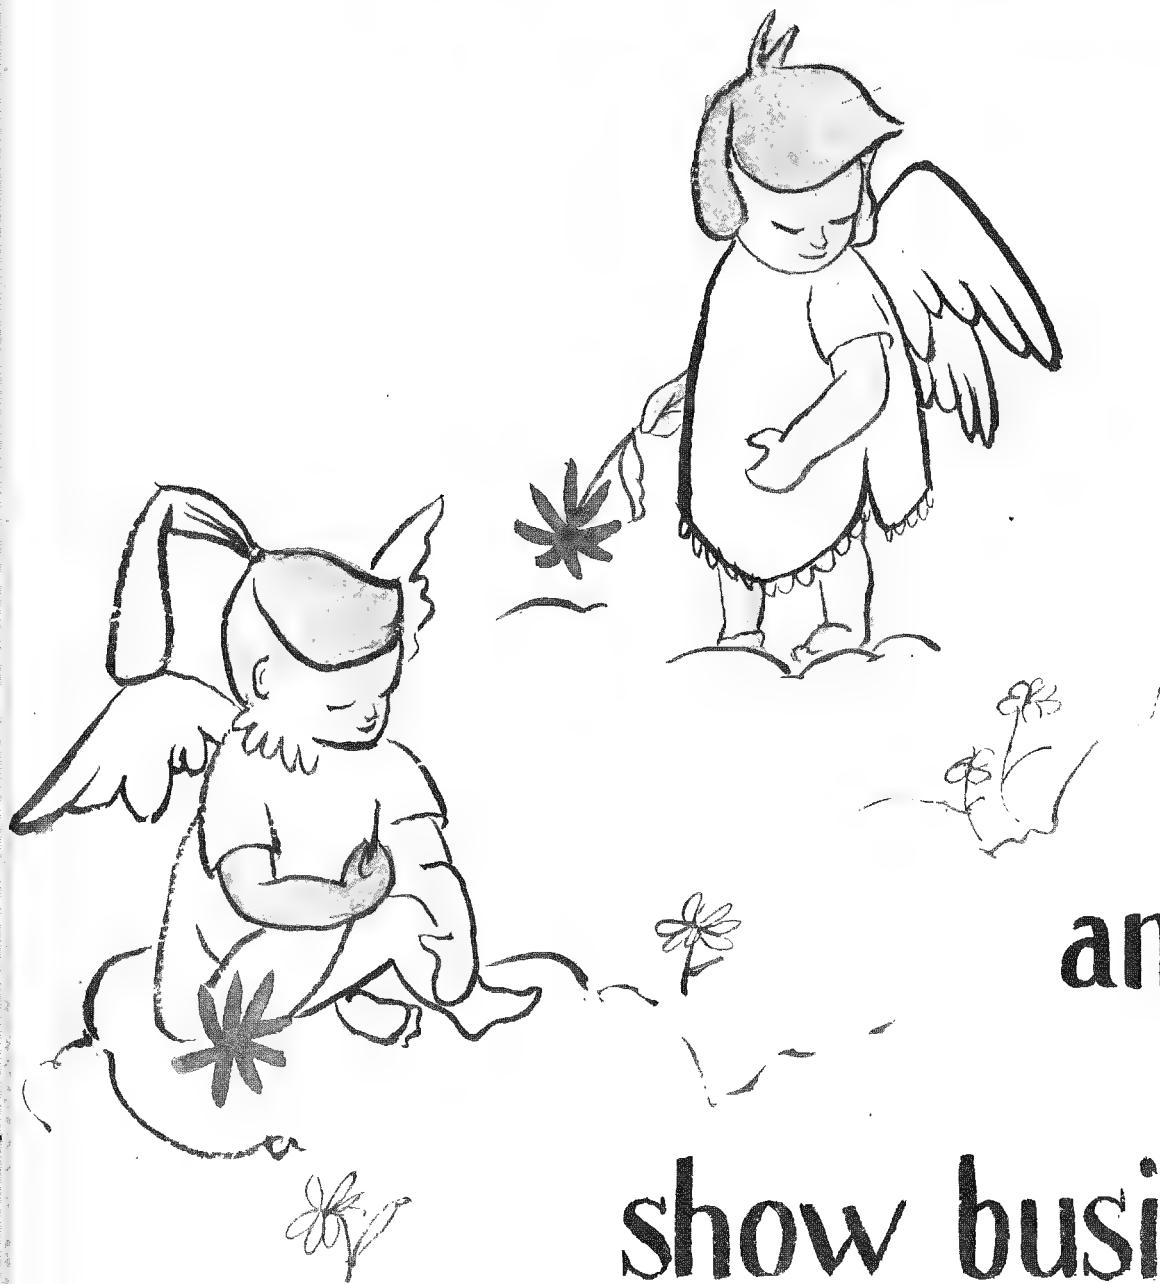

Marie Carrier, Emily Cormier, Sheila Crowley, Gladys Chellman, and Josephine D'Alessio's frustration brought on by their session room—room 105—where there were no boys—just typewriters.

And so with the end of our high school career, the only one who will have class duties to confront after graduation is Gilda Lisella, Class scribe.

So—Your historians have spoken.

Having taken the voice of the historic past we now conclude the annals of the Class of 1955.

A view of Connecticut General's spacious, air-conditioned building now going up in Bloomfield.

To the left of the picture is the working area. The smaller building is the cafeteria — complete with reflecting pool.

The surrounding country-side will be beautifully landscaped. Four garden courts will be set right in the office area.
